מדרש תמונה – חלום יעקב

Visual Midrash – Yaakov's Dream

Descriptive Narrative

Midrash = an interpretive act, seeking the answers to religious questions (both practical and theological) by plumbing the meaning of the words of the Torah.

Midrash is a literary genre that uses allegory and imaginative narrative to fill in those places in the text where the stories do not feel complete.

Visual midrash uses the visual arts medium as a tool to create a midrash.

What message not in the text does your visual midrash show? What question does it answer? Describe how your visual midrash shows / extends the story of Yaakov's dream found in the Torah.
