

The Aron

Was captured

I am getting this question from the navi.

“hashem told Shmuel: the Aron will be lost in war, Ailey’s children will die young, etc.”

If hashem wanted the plishtim to take the Aron then why did he punish the plishtim for taking it.

3 potential answers:

A. Hashem wants a reason to punish the plishtim.

Nope, why would Hashem look for reasons to punish his creations!?

B. The people wanted the plishtim to take the aaron.

Also no. The Aron was the only thing winning the battles for them, why give it away?

C. The plishtim had a choice to take the Aron they chose wrong.

If you chooses C then you are right!

The plitstim had a choice to take the Aron, and they did, so they got punished.

This is what happened when

The lesson for our life is:

The lesson for our life is that we make every single choice in our lives and if we fall down the wrong path then most choices will have consequences.
