Duffus: Can you help us?

Rebbe: Help you? Question is: Can you help yourselves?

You look like you need a brain, you look like you need a heart

And you!, definitely need courage!

All chossids: WOW

Rebbe: Hmmmm very interesting!

Song: Hu Elokenu etc.

The Rebbe looks at them and says:

Rebbe: Why do people come to me with impossible requests?

You need a brain? I can't give you a brain, because you have one! You have a brain! You need to use it!

Use your heart, and your brain will work better.

Think, Read, Ask questions!, and your brain will work!

And you, you need a heart? I can't give you a heart because you have a heart! Use your brain and your heart will work better! Think, Read, Be passionate! Gd loves you, so you must love Gd as well, you love your family, there's your heart. It has to come from here!

And you need courage? You made it here, didn't you? That takes courage! You have courage! Nobody can give you courage, YOU have to give YOU courage, it's the only way it's going to work.

As for your dog, can he bark?

Dufus: Of course, bark Doggie!

Rebbe: Here's your licence! OK. Off you go back home

Dufus, the Chossids: Yea!!! I have a brain

I have a heart

I have courage

Woof!

Song: We're glad we saw the Rebbe, The Wonderful Rebbe of Oz..

Music, dancing!
